

2008 Southeast Building Conference Media Registration Form

Members of the working press are invited to attend the 2008 Southeast Building Conference (SEBC). Registration for members of the working press, including print, broadcast, and web, is complimentary. Please note magazine advertising staff, publishers, publication scouts, print salespersons, etc. are not considered members of the working media and will not receive complimentary access to SEBC.

Freelance writers wishing to gain complimentary entrance to SEBC should submit a letter from their publisher, on the publications letterhead, confirming the writers approval to cover SEBC-related stories for that publication. All media should be prepared to present media credentials.

Registered media will have access to seminars and workshops, news conferences and media availabilities, trade show exhibits, and other conference events and activities.

Media interested in attending the 2008 Southeast Building Conference must complete this registration form, and fax or mail the form to:
